

Story time with seniors

Mrs. Normen reads 'Andrew Can Ski' by Sheryl Brookman Hargheu to first-grade class at PRS.

Students at PRS recently enjoyed story time with South Windsor seniors. Coordinated by Cindi Yakoubian and Andrew Confrancesco, adults come into classrooms to read books to students. It has become an annual tradition that both students and teachers alike look forward to each year.

Connecticut Scholastic Art Awards

Three South Windsor High School students have received Connecticut Scholastic Art Awards: Victoria Davieau for her painting, "Hiding"; Laura Feiereisen for her photograph, "Eden"; and Derek Von Nieda for his jewelry, "Wave Bracelet." The Scholastic Art Awards have recognized the vision, ingenuity and talent of our nation's youth, and provided opportunities for creative teens to be celebrated. Students' submissions are blindly judged by leaders in the visual and literary arts. Jurors look for works that exemplify the awards' core values: originality, technical skill, and the emergence of personal voice or vision.

Snow shoe adventures

PRS students snowshoeing.

Mrs. Beeler's P.E. classes at PRS are enjoying the snow! All of the students in grades 3, 4 and 5 have an opportunity as part of their P.E. curriculum to participate in "Snow Shoes." Students have enjoyed the snowy winter scenery as they've adventured down Avery Wood Trail.

World premiere of new song

World Premiere

You Have Eyes

created by acclaimed composer Jim Papoulis

Save the Date for this very special Choral Event

Wednesday, March 11, 2015

7:00 p.m.

SWHS Auditorium

Featuring SWHS Choral Spectrum, Treble Choir and Spectrum Band; TEMS Spotlight; and the South Windsor Elementary All-District Chorus

Tickets will be available on TicketLeap
www.southwindsorschools.org/music

Preparations are in full swing for the upcoming world premiere of a song composed exclusively for South Windsor students. The song, "You Have Eyes," was created by world acclaimed composer and director Jim Papoulis. A very special concert event will be held on Wednesday, March 11, at South Windsor High School, and feature the voices and talents of K-12 students from Choral Spectrum, Treble Choir, Spotlight and the All-Elementary District Chorus.

Submitted by Sara Chamberlain

100th Day of School

Liam Cayward celebrates the 100th Day of School in style.

Wapping students Savannah Bacon and Tykwel Prude with donations for HVCC.

Wapping Elementary School found many ways to celebrate the 100th day of school. Pictured here is first-grader Liam Cayward dressed as he might look if he were 100 years old! Students in grade two set a goal to collect 100 items for the HVCC Food Pantry. They exceeded this goal by 50 percent!

Random Acts of Kindness

Students at Eli Terry have a shared goal of world peace.

Grade 5 students have really taken on a role of leadership within the walls of Eli Terry. The theme is "Random Acts of Kindness," and the students have proved that they are mature individuals who are working toward one goal: world peace. Each student makes an effort each day to do something kind for someone else without being asked. It has become second nature to them. They have learned over the course of the past three months that they can attain peace one day at a time, one person at a time, and it begins with them. The amount of love and compassion that has poured out of these students is motivating and inspiring. It is without fail, one of the most moving experiences to be a part of. Grade 5 teachers are incredibly proud of the students at Eli Terry. They set an example for the rest of the school and will continue grow into wholesome adults with a passion for peace.